David C. Young, age 46, of Canton, Georgia, died September 10, 2014, at his residence.

David was born in Houston, Texas on December 28, 1967, and spent most of his life in Longview, Texas, before settling in Georgia in the late 90's. While in Texas, David graduated with a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Houston.

David was known to have a charitable heart. He would respond quickly to help those in need, and gave generously to help his community and neighbors. David was a "driven" business owner (Jump Kitchen, Woodstock, GA.,) who worked very hard to ensure the patrons were pleased with their service and experience. He was a talented athlete and was very active with the sports and other activities of his children. David also enjoyed riding his Harley, being on the lake, hunting, and spending time with his family.

David was preceded in death by his father; Reginald Gladish Young Jr., and grandfather; Reginald Gladish Young.

Survivors include his wife of 21 years, Michelle Young, daughter; Amber Young, sons; Johnathon Young and Daniel Young, mother; Judy (Ramon) Cantu, brother; Jim (Amy) Young, sister; Jennifer (Drew) Jackson, father-in-law; Robert Goerner, grandmother; Virginia Young, grandparents; Charles and Ann Goerner. Several nieces, nephews, and extended family members also survive.

Hi, Cedric. Thanks for putting together the class newsletter. My biggest news is that I received my doctorate in educational administration, curriculum, and supervision from the University of Oklahoma in May. At that time I was also named the Outstanding Graduate Student in the Janine Rainbolt College of Education. I'll use my degree in my continuing work as assistant superintendent for teaching and learning at Jenks Public Schools, which is in Tulsa, OK.

Outside of work, I enjoy spending time with my husband, Frank, and our three kids. Our daughter, Whitney, is a junior at the University of Arkansas. Elizabeth is a freshman at Texas A & M, and Frank IV is a sophomore at Jenks High School.

This world is so political! Individuals commit and then change at a drop of a dime. Individuals bait you in with the sweet sauce gathering your trust.

The whole time they're gathering your trust, there's a plan to put a knife in your back. I'm sorry to say, that's why you don't put your faith and trust in man. You should only trust God!!!

I see you brother, God has revealed you. – Clyde Boyd 9/9
