

Chapter 12 Sect. 1,2,3 Classwork - modified

Sect.1

Fjord

Uplands

Meseta

Massif Central

Peat

Sect.2

North Atlantic Drift

Sirocco

Mistral

Sect.3

Dike

Polder

Seaworks

Terpen

Zuider Zee

Ijsselmeer

Sect.4

Questions: (Write the Questions)

1. Why is Europe called a "peninsula of peninsulas"? (p. 273)

It is called this because Europe itself has many smaller _____.

2. How do the North Atlantic Drift and the prevailing westerlies affect Europe's climate? (P. 278)

The prevailing westerlies, which blow west to east, pick up _____ from the North Atlantic Drift and carry it over Europe. They also carry moisture, giving the region adequate _____.

3. Describe the Mediterranean climate which borders the Mediterranean Sea. (P. 279)

Summers are _____ and _____ with clear, sunny skies, while winters are _____ and _____.

4. How has pollution affected the city of Venice? (p. 283)

Severe _____ pollution threatens Venice. Industrial waste, _____, and saltwater are combining to eat away the foundations of buildings, causing damage.