

Chapter 6 – Sect 1, 2, 3, 4 Classwork (modified)–

Sect. 1

Migration
Columbian Exchange
Louisiana Purchase
Frontier
Suburb
Representative Democracy

Sect. 2

Export
Free Enterprise
Service Industry
Postindustrial Economy
Amendment Multinational

Sect. 3

New England
Megalopolis
the Midwest
The South
Metropolitan Area
the West

Sect. 4

Land Grants
Diffusion
Chisholm Trail
Alamo

Questions: (Write the questions)

1. Why is the United States called a “nation of immigrants”? P. 135

It is called a “nation of immigrants” because the U.S.’s _____ and climate has attracted waves of immigrants who came to find a better life for thousands of years.

2. How are the powers of government in the United States divided? P. 139

The powers of government in the U.S. are divided into _____ equal branches of government- executive, legislative, and judicial.

3. In what industry do most Americans work? P. 142

Most Americans work within the _____ industry.

4. How did California become the nation’s most populous state? P. 149

California became the most populous state because of excellent _____, good _____, and a mild _____.