Spent the weekend with my Dallas Seminary Family at the inauguration of its 6th President, Dr. Mark Yarbrough. Lots of laughter and stories and remembering God's faithfulness at a place where I was transformed. Loved seeing friends and professors and hearing Tony Evans and Chuck Swindoll and meeting delegates from sister institutions. My heart is full.

Wow! So this picture came up on my memories today and this was before he was diagnosed with Alzheimer's so this was pre-2013 probably somewhere around 2008 or so. 🥺 hard to believe he's already been gone for three years. 🥺

Know this, that in the last days critical times hard to deal with will be here.—2 Tim. 3:1.

Were you born after the year 1914? If so, you have lived your entire life during "the last days" of the present system of things. All of us have heard about the events that Jesus foretold for this time. These include wars, food shortages, earthquakes, pestilences, an increasing of lawlessness, and the persecution of Jehovah's people. (Matt. 24:3, 7-9, 12; Luke 21:10-12) We have also ... See More

I just tried to get my hair cut. This ol barber here has cut my hair on occasion for 30 years. Nothing regular. Just here and there. The sign posted said he passed away April 13, 2021.

He was a likable man. Was trained to be a barber when he was 16. Must've been just shy of 64 now. A lower functioning guy, but he took care of himself over 40 years on haircuts. I was looking forward to talking to him today. I'm sad he's gone and there's really no reason he had to be. He had Covid and didn't have insurance. That's just fucking wrong.

Were your ears burning yesterday? My keyboarding class started writing a story yesterday and I told them a story about you! It came right after I told them, "Don't make it too violent or gory." Then they got the story of swapping papers with Joe and reading about the fate of a school bus full of children. 😊😊

Did you and I exchange papers? Did I write gory tales about school children and a bus? I'm embarrassed. Especially in these times since whenever you turn on the television there's some guy with a gun committing unspeakable acts. Then they interview those that knew him and they all nod to the camera and say, "Yeah, I'm not surprised. In fact, he used to write nightmarish stories about busloads of children and..." I'm so glad I'm a pacifist. Hope you're doing well and still painting. 🙏
