Just curious, do you personally know anyone who has lost their life to Covid or tested positive?

Doing lunch with Brianna before we leave Miami. This is bitter sweet, but necessary and part of her journey. We'll just adjust and enjoy it.....When I was leaving for the military in 1989 and was saying goodbye to my parents, my mom told me she's not saying goodbye, so now I FEEL what that means. The University of Miami just got one!

A homeless guy asked me for a $1 today. I looked in my wallet and all I had was a $20 bill. "Do I really want this money going towards alcohol"?, I thought to myself. "Nah"! So I gave him the $20.

I have always heard that when your phone rings at an early hour it's usually never good news Sunday Morning at 3:17am my phone rings and I told my husband that's Davondrick so I answered and he had a wreck (which he shouldn't have been out at that time) but all I could do was say God I Thank You for sparing his life it could have been worse I could have gotten a call that we had lost him BUT GOD!!!! I pray that you teenagers realize that your parents have been there and that we know what we're talking about PLEASE LISTEN when they tell you something I Thank God for covering my baby Lord knows I pray for our babies. Young people be careful and keep a relationship with GOD!!!! You're going to need Him

It still doesn't seem real. I still keep hoping to wake up from this nightmare of not having my mom. It's been a month. I'm told it gets easier but I can't seem to figure out how it's supposed to knowing I'll never again hug her or get a hug from her. I miss her so much.

The only bird that dares to peck at a eagle 🦅 is the crow.
He sits on his back and bites his neck. However, the eagle does not respond, nor fight with the crow; it doesn't waste time or energy on the crow!
It simply opens its wings and begins to rise higher in the HEAVENS. The higher the flight, the harder it is for the crow to breathe and then the crow falls due to lack of oxygen.
Stop wasting your time with the CROWS.
Just take them to your heights and they'll fade 🙏

The enemy will sit behind your back and bite your neck... "but those who wait for the Lord will have new strength; They will raise wings like EAGLES 🦅 ..."
" (Isaiah 40:31) He who has an ear to hear, listen.

No matter what we've been through in life, God is faithful to take the pieces of our past—what we thought was only painful, useless, and broken—and produce amazing fruit both in us and through us. No burden, roadblock, or waiting season is ever wasted in his hands. There is often profound purpose within the pain, challenges, and difficulties, and we can trust in God's ability and kindness to transform our tests into a testimony for our good and for his glory.

"And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose." -Romans 8:28

On my way to a HS in Frisco that I haven't been to before to officiate basketball games. So I turn on my navigation and it started routing me in the direction of the airport for the "shortest route!" 🤔 Hold on playa! You ain't getting me for no $6 toll just to pass through! I proceed to take the best route that I am familiar with to get to the city of Frisco and it was only two minutes longer than the $6 toll route suggested! I ain't no visitor no mo playa.... I'm home and I know my way around these streets! 🤔🤔🤔🤔

It is a Heavy Heart that I post this announcement of the passing of my Father, James Lee Hampton, Dad had just reached his 79th Birthday on January 26th but had spent it in the hospital battling COVID-19. Thank you all for any prayers and support that you have given my Father, Aunt, Brother, myself or any of our family and friends that are grieving the loss of our "Precious Angel, Mr. Wonderful, Super Daddy". I rest in the knowledge that he was a believer in our Lord Jesus Christ and we will see him again with no pain, no sickness and no suffering. PS my Aunt is still battling in ICU, so prayers would still be appreciated.
