In Loving Memory of Robin, John, and Wytaine

The Lobo Class of 86 lost three of the most friendly and nicest classmates one would ever meet- Here are my fondest memories:

I first met Robin when we were in the 6th grade at Judson MS. I had a few classes with her, notably choir and Texas History in the 7th grade. She sat next to me in Texas History and we'd usually work together on some assignment and she would always make me laugh about something, usually almost causing us to get into trouble. I usually sat with her (and some of her friends) in the cafeteria during our senior year, and she always still continued to try and make me laugh. Just for that, I miss her-

John also attended Judson with me and we had a few classes together also at Judson and in high school. He was a very friendly and cordial person, and we talked about different things whenever we ran into one another and sometimes corresponded via FB. He was just a great and down-to-Earth person who could get along with anyone-

Wytaine and I went all the way back to 5th grade and Jodie McClure. I remember she introduced herself to me seeing that I was the new kid at school and she mentioned that her mom and my dad were working together at the time at the same job. She was bigger and taller than me at the time (as most girls were back then), but she was no bully- she was just a very nice, friendly, and smart person. I unfortunately never had a class with her in high school, but we still spoke to one another in school and always at class reunions. I am proud to have known her, Robin, and John. They will be missed greatly-

Susan Foreman Bain I truly hate the circumstances but thank you for posting. My mom worked for his dad for 20+ years and because of this info, she was able to call them. Many prayers during their time of loss.

Wytaine Smith

Wytaine Evette Smith

PLANO - Memorial services are scheduled for Wytaine Evette Smith, 49, of Plano, 2 p.m. Saturday, July 8, 2017, at Bible Teaching Ministries, Longview. Arrangements by Stanmore Funeral Home, Longview. Ms. Smith was born February 8, 1968, in Longview, and died June 29, 2017.

My middle school years in band were in constant competition with Wytaine for first chair trumpet. She was always kind and overachieving, and stayed connected with me over the last 30 years. We will all miss her.
