Brazilian, Peruvian, Indian, Malaysian setting on top of someone's head to bring in connections with Hermes, Gucci, Dior, Dolce And Gabbana , Ralph Lauren , Versace, Michael Kors attached to their bodies could create the illusion of an quality individual, but doesn't change the blemishes nor the defects within their heart. Quality is most valuable when displayed from the inside.

So proud of our songbird. She has grown in her talent and become a beautiful soprano. We are going to miss your performances at Sam Houston but are looking forward to bigger and better from you. We love you bunches. Thanks to Casa Flora and Vickie Clark Slover for the beautiful flowers. She loves them.

In a land long long ago, but not too far away, a young man and a young woman named Sherry Jones decided they were perfect for each other. There have been more good times than bad. Two wonderful children and a life I wouldn't trade for anything. I'm ready to see what the next several decades have in store for us!
 Happy anniversary to the love of my life! 26 years and counting!

Thank you KLTv 7 for this excellent report!

In case you missed it: Hollywood movie star and Longview High graduate Matthew McConaughey joined the Longview Lobos as they were honored in front of the Texas House of Representatives on March 6.

Lobo standouts Kamden Perry, Jessie Anderson, and Haynes King received shout-outs during the honor, along with the Lobos head coach John King.

The team defeated Beaumont West Brook 35-34 in December to claim the 6A Division II state championship title. It was the first time the school claimed the championship since 1937, 81 years before this win.

A resolution was filed honoring the Lobos' big win by State Rep. Jay Dean. Dean represents District 7, which encompasses Gregg and Upshur County. The game was played in front of 48,000 fans at AT&T Stadium in Arlington on December 22, 2018.

According to a press release from Representative Dean's office, "This morning Rep. Jay Dean passed House Resolution 357 in honor of the 6A Division 2 State Championship-winning Longview Lobos. The day began with private visits with with Governor Abbott (who grew up in Longview) and Longview High Alumnus Matthew McConaughey, Class of 1988. The team then moved to the House of Representatives where Rep. Dean recognized the team and passed House Resolution 357.

Upon the team's departure, Dean stated: "What a day! So proud of these kids. They did a great job representing our community and left a real impression on our Capitol this morning. This event was all about the players and coaches, but I want to thank the Governor and Mr. McConaughey for accepting my invitation to join us in recognition of our city. Go Lobos!"
